Dear Sir:

Will you please cause the 'Napoleon' picture, to be packed in its box, carefully, and sent here, by American Express; directed "to James Fairman Minneapolis, Minn."

Please do not name any value on it; as that increases cost.
or if you do say $20. only.
Try to get it sent 'single rate' as there is no glass to break or any risk, if the picture is carefully packed. I think it would be well to cover the face of the picture with paper; and then pack shavings to the lid of box.

If you would be so kind, as cause this to be done, as soon as possible, you will confer a great favor.

I am very grateful for the many forms of courtesy shown me. — Asuring you of my profound regard

Yours truly

Dear Sir.

I most respectfully ask you to permit me to place a picture in the Corcoran Art Gallery, it is taken from life, represents an old ash woman, it was painted by my daughter Mrs Florence Wolf Gaxhold of New York.
As she is a Washington girl I feel anxious that her first effort should be seen in our Gallery.

Yours very truly

Care of Art-Gallery

I have three very old paintings that I would like to dispose of and write to see if I could find a sale for them.
One is a portrait of La Fayette presented to May Peter B. Berrien and the other of Aaron Burr.
I have been offered a hundred dollars apiece, but did not take it on account of the pictures being handed down by my ancestors and would not dispose of them now but for pecuniary troubles. Hoping you may take the pictures and that I may hear soon what you will give. Respt

Mr. Medcok,

Dear Sir,

Just as I was devising ways and means of copying for two months ^{more} in Bocoran Art. Gallery - a friend asked me if I did not have something pretty for the windows of his store.

He thinks he can sell my copy of Mr. Kensett's "Autumn Afternoon on Lake George" - if he can have it in time for Christmas sale -

So I send it by express - to-morrow, Dec. 2nd, to ask

With many Thanks for past-kindness I am, Yours Truly - R. M. Hasbrouck - of your Art Committee - permission to sell it.

Will Mr. McLeod cause the picture to be returned to me as early as practicable - and will he also forward, with it, the little study of Mr. Sanford Gifford's Laço Maggiore which I sent as specimen when I applied for permission to copy at the Corcoran Art Gallery -

I did not think of it - when leaving -

If the boards which protect the picture can be saved - Mr. J. Winfield, of the Paymaster General's Dept. - will willingly see to the wrapping and expressing it - if one of the ushers will be so kind as to notify him - when it can be returned -

Dear Sir -

You will probably remember my talking with you last month about a portrait of Webster by Harding owned by Mrs. Mary S. Kealy of Boston. I should be glad to hear if Mr. Corcoran expressed any interest in it, and if it would improve our chances of selling the picture to send it on for exhibition in your Gallery. I understand the picture to be the original from which the engraving which makes the frontispiece of Vol. II of "The Works of Daniel Webster" was made. I was talking yesterday with General Loring of the Boston Art Museum, and he said he should be glad to give me a letter to the effect that he considered the portrait a good specimen of Harding's work. Naturally I should not care to send the picture to Washington if the Gallery is not likely to want it in any event; but I should be disposed to send it if there is a chance that your Committee, on finding the picture as represented, would offer what they considered a fair price for it. You have on file my letter to the Gallery of May 7, 1881, ^{containing} such information as I have about this portrait.

Yours respy
